“This was a mixed quarter for the Company” said David Watson, CEO. “On the one hand, it was a slow quarter for Triodetic revenue. On the other hand, Triodetic had an excellent quarter for order bookings, which will begin shipping in early fiscal 2027. In addition to this, Elmira, a small boutique Canadian manufacturer of vintage appliances, finally received CSA approval for its entire line and, as of January 2026, is busy shipping its large backorder list. Plaintree has completed the disposal of all remaining assets of Summit Aerospace USA Inc. and is continuing to advance its core strategic initiatives.”
